

Date: Thursday, March 19th, 2020.

Scholarship offered by Heilbronn University of Applied Sciences

Heilbronn University of Applied Sciences at Germany is offering one scholarship for one TBS student to study for the second semester 2022-2023 (From March 1 to July 31, 2023).

The amount of the scholarship is 4500 Euros (900 Euros x 5 months). The student is responsible for paying his own travel expenses to Heilbronn and the University medical insurance fees. TBS and University of Tunis do not provide any additional funds for this scholarship.

The application is open for junior students ONLY who will be graduating in June 2023. To apply, you need to submit a signed letter to the Dean of TBS. In the letter, you need to include your personnel information (CIN number, photo, email, and phone number) and to mention your academic level, cumulative GPA (without forgiveness), number of registered credits, and the number of earned credits. The junior students need to mention their major and minor in the letter. The letter should be written professionally.

Since the study program is in Germany, it is preferable that the applicant has a level A2 in German language. In this case, the applicant must submit a proof of his/her level of German language.

The Coordinator of the program at Heilbronn University will conduct the interview. It will be in German and English.

The deadline of the application is Tuesday, April 12, 2022 at 23:59.

The student must send a pdf file to salah.benabdallah@tbs.u-tunis.tn. Only submission by email is considered.

Prof. Dr. Salah BENABDALLAH, Eng., PhD., HDR